Leith Churches Together and Sailors Society Christmas Gifts for Seafarers

This year we are once again collecting: Scottish fridge magnets, note books, key rings, small calendars, novelty socks, short-bread, tablet and sweets for seafarers away from home over Christmas. Your support in this really is appreciated and brings a lot of happiness. Please give donations to Sally Fraser. Our event to sign a card for seafarers in Ocean Terminal will take place next Sunday 25th November 11:00am-4:00pm. ALL WELCOME

Thank you to the Adult Faith Formation team for the Lovely Me and My Saint event.

Please send items for the newsletter to Kathy, the parish administrator by Thursday morning to info@stmarysstarofthesea.org, or leave a note in the office.

Family Mass, Today we welcome the children from the school for family Mass. Here is the post-communion reflection:

There is none like You

No one else can touch my heart like You do

I could search for all eternity long

And find there is none like You

Sunday 18th November is World Day for the Poor

This weekend we are honouring World Day for the poor in our celebrations. If you have brought in any instant dried food, please take it up to the Altar during offertory, or if you are unable, then ask someone else to take it or leave it at the end.

With thanks to the Parish Justice, Peace and Integrity of Creation (JPIC) group and the school peace and justice group for their contributions to this Liturgy.

SATURDAY 24TH NOVEMBER CHRIST THE KING
MASS FOR YOUTH AND YOUNG ADULTS

On the Vigil of the Feast of Christ the King, St Mary welcomes all youth and young adults to come to a special Youth celebration of Mass next Saturday (Vigil Mass)

This will be led by Fr. Martin and the young people of our Parish, followed by a meal afterwards in the Parish hall.

If you are a young person interested in getting involved or finding out more, speak to Fr. Martin or Steph Lee.

November Masses

During the month of November we will be offering Mass everyday for all those who's names have been given to be remembered and to be prayed for. MAY THEY REST IN PEACE.

Envelopes available at the back of the church. Please hand into office.

On Wednesday, 28th of November at 7pm there will be a Mass for all those who have died in the last 12 months.

If you have family or friends who have died in the last 12month, (who are outwith the Parish) whose name you would like read out and to light a candle for please add their name to the lists at the back of the church, along with your name and contact number by Monday 26th November. Thank you

Fr Lylie's Departure In response to these requests a second collection will be taken at Masses this weekend. If donating by cheque, please make these payable to St Mary Star of the Sea. Thank you
